

South Australian River Murray Sustainability Program Industry-led Research Sub-Program Projects

Round	Project Title	Approved Funding
1	Almond salt sensitivity: avoiding salt stress during critical growth stages	$197,590
1	Longevity and sustained performance of rootstocks in Lower Murray horticulture; viticulture and citrus	$453,325
1	Managing Almond production in a variable and changing climate	$430,000
1	Regional assessment of climate and water risks and opportunities for SA irrigated industries.	$312,791
1	Sustaining irrigation and soil condition under changing climate and land use in Lower Murray irrigation areas	$368,960
2	Designing a unique Riverland wine product category for Chinese weddings	$280,872
2	Developing a fungicide resistance service for citrus packers	$47,000
2	Resilience traits for almond rootstocks	$486,109
2	Transforming Riverland food loss and industry waste into a profit	$317,000
Grand Total:		$2,893,647

Last updated 19 July 2016.