Purpose of Travel: The purpose of my travel to Shandong was to support the Premier's mission and celebrate the sister-state relationship between South Australia and Shandong and to promote South Australia's international connections and engagement in support of economic growth. The objectives of the Shandong Mission are listed below:

- Provide a platform for South Australian businesses to identify new investment or trade opportunities in Shandong that are underpinned by the China Australia Free Trade Agreement (ChAFTA);
- Provide an opportunity for delegates to participate in a number of trade fairs to meet potential Chinese business partners;
- Support the establishment or further development of education, training, research and/or exchange collaborations;
- Build and strengthen sister-city relationships in Shandong, that provide a platform for commercial engagement;
- Provide the opportunity for delegates to participate in the Federal Government's Australia Week in China program which was held from 10-15th April 2016.
